

Stephanie Maxwell
General Counsel

Stephanie Maxwell is the General Counsel for the Tennessee Comptroller of the Treasury. She leads the Office of General Counsel, managing the Office's attorneys and their workloads. Stephanie provides counsel and guidance to the Comptroller's 11 office divisions.

Prior to joining the Comptroller's Office, Stephanie worked for two Nashville law firms – Bass, Berry & Sims and Waller Lansden Dortch & Davis.

Stephanie is a graduate of the University of Tennessee, Knoxville and holds a Juris Doctor from Washington and Lee University in Lexington, Virginia. She is a member of Harding Academy's Board of Trustees, and sits on the board of the Middle Tennessee Alumni Chapter of Washington and Lee University.

Stephanie and her husband Kemp have three boys. She and her family enjoy swimming and attending the boys' soccer games. She loves to read, and is especially interested in World War II history.

